

Endeavor to say more than “Good job!” or “Nice try.”

SPECIFIC

Feedback should be meaningful. Avoid vague
or broad language.

Feedback should
be actionable,
providing a clear
path for improvement.

GUIDING

FEEDBACK

TIMELY

Provide enough time for learners to self-monitor and adjust.

Be concise.
Convolutd or “sugar-coated”
language may cause confusion.

CLEAR

RECURRING

Provide
consistent,
systematic
feedback
throughout the course.

SUITABLE

Feedback should be positive,
tactful, and non-threatening.

Use objective language.
Avoid judgmental language.